How to take advantage of a selling surge and translate potential into growth

The conference will grant you access to the most influential secondary audience and an exceptional and diverse panel of speakers who will share practical insights and "need-to-know" information on sensitive issues, including:

- How to find immediate liquidity for tax; generate cash and eliminate balance sheet liabilities associated with unfunded capital commitments;
- Why reallocating resources to funds of newer vintages or with a different sector focus could help you to rebalance your private equity portfolio with the lowest possible risk of loss;
- When is it best time to put your fund up for sale? Where to look for the best buyer;
- Who is on currently on the road? How much and who are they targeting?
- What you need to know and how to avert new risks associated with swapping investor interests on the secondary market
