Global dealflow in Q2 2010 represents the strongest quarter for buyout deals in the post-credit crunch landscape, a total of 411 private equity buyout deals were announced, with an aggregate value of $43.3bn. This represents a 60% increase in aggregate deal value from the previous quarter, when 356 deals were announced with an aggregate value of $27.1bn.

The buyout industry witnessed a significant decline in dealflow during 2009, with the aggregate deal value reaching its lowest point in Q1 2009, when it stood at $11bn. But dealflow began picking up momentum in Q4 2009, when it reached pre-crisis levels with 382 deals announced with an aggregate value of $40.4bn. Despite a disappointing first quarter in 2010, when aggregate deal value decreased by a third from the previous quarter, Q2 2010 shows that the environment has improved for buyout deals.

In Q2 2010, aggregate deal value in North America rose sharply in comparison with the previous quarter with 175 deals accounting for $26.7bn. Deal activity in this quarter was stronger in terms of aggregate
